

Pacific Coast Hybrid Iris
Iris Pacific Coast Hybrids

Photographer: Kathi Dowdakin

Plant Type:	Perennial	Evergreen
Flower Color:	various colors
Flowering Time:	March to April
Height:	1.5	feet
Width:	2	feet
Exposure:	Sun-part shade
Water Req.:	Occasional - once a month or so, depending on temperatures and wind.
Habitat Value:	Pollinators

Comments and Maintenance:

A lovely diverse group bred from native irises with wonderful coloration and flower form. They come in colors ranging from soft pastels to mahogany, maroon and dark purple. Deer resistant.