

California Black Oak

Quercus kelloggii

Photographer: Josh Williams

Plant Type:	Tree	Deciduous
Flower Color:	Mauve
Flowering Time:	March to
Height:	100 feet	03
Width:	30 feet
Exposure:	Sun or shade
Water Req.:	Dry-no water once established, unless severe drought, then once month. However, this is the oak most tolerant of some summer water if near irrigated area.
Habitat Value:	100s of species use

Comments and Maintenance:

This beautiful oak with mauve color new growth in the spring and mauve flowers is an essential part of the oak Coastal and Foothill ecosystem. If you have space it is essential. They are susceptible to Sudden Oak Death. They can live up to 500 years.